

Letters

Verse 1

The moment fades away everything's the same only me and my decision no one else to blame

Verse 2

Too many choices to make afraid of missing so much which road is worth to take it's only up to me

Chorus

Remembering the letters I didn't write and all the words I didn't say chances I missed and decisions I made it tears me apart 'til I break away

Verse 3

This is the cusp to a new point-of-view feels like a new and brighter day whatever will come, I'll make it through won't give a fuck about what others say

Chorus

Remembering the letters I didn't write
and all the words I didn't say
chances I missed and decisions I made
it tears me apart 'til I break away

Bridge

I can see a light and start back for home
'cause there are others and I'm not alone

Chorus

No need for the letters I didn't write don't care 'bout the words I didn't say
chances I missed and decisions I made
'cause this time it's my own way
