Verse 1

Cm

I'm stressed, depressed, I'm really a mess, 'cause I can't get over you

It's no lie, I try - to open my mind

To the thought of someone new - will I ever be the same

I still get weak at the sound of your name

Verse 2

Cm

I'm dazed, I'm crazed, and a little amazed and I can't shake loose of this

I'm confused, 'cause you - say you love me too

But I don't feel it in your kiss - you whisper words I wanna hear

The trouble is - you're just not sincere

Chorus

You keep disappointing me and makin' me cry, I want to believe you and I ask myself why

I feel like I'm losing it, my heart's blown a fuse

This is more than just a simple, case of the blues, case of the blues

Verse 3

Cm

When will I - be tough, got to be strong enough, to see the truth and understand

That you lied - to me - and now I can see

You're an evilhearted man - ain't gonna throw my life away

Hoping that you'll change before it's too late

Chorus

You keep disappointing me and makin' me cry, I want to believe you and I ask myself why

I feel like I'm losing it, my heart's blown a fuse

This is more than just a simple, case of the blues, case of the blues

Outro
